ZULULANDERS ABROAD To India, with love

Ronelle Ramsamy

ALMOST one year later, Richards Bay globe-trotting honeymooners Fabian and Jolene Naidoo are still completing their fairytale adventure from India to Sri Lanka, Malaysia to Singapore, Sentosa Island and Malacca.

Married on 29 March last year, the couple began their whirlwind romantic tour around the world just two days later.

Resigning from their jobs at the uMhlathuze and uThungulu municipalities, Jolene and Fabian made India their new home, working together for an international company as an HR Officer and Chartered Accountant respectively.

‘This has been the most amazing year of our lives, almost like a fairytale.’

‘This year truly was a gift of love from God - absolute privacy in getting to learn about each other, a precious one year honeymoon,’ said Jolene.

Expedition

Their Indian expedition began from the capital Delhi to the gateway of India in Bombay (Mumbai), passing through the western Himalayan Mountains to the romantic Goa.

Their adventure further took them from the border of Nepal to the turquoise waters of French-colonised Puducherry, while exploring the land of camels, Rajasthan to Madras.

Nothing short of spectacular, they experienced the scenic vineyards of Nashik to the mountainous terrain of Almora in Calcutta, to the breathtaking Taj Mahal.

In addition, the couple recently returned from a Christmas holiday on board a super star cruise ship, visiting Sri Lanka, Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur, Singapore, Sentosa Island and Malacca.

The couple will soon bid farewell to their first home together - India, and take with them countless special memories that will forever be etched in their hearts.

‘We are living out the phrase: When God writes your love story, you experience true love, which brings complete fulfilment and romance in its purest, richest, and most satisfying form.

‘I have spent the happiest days of my life with Fabian. Even as we complete our first year together this month, I can’t wait to spend the rest of my years with him.’
